The General Assembly,

Having considered the reports of the Secretary-General on the financing of the United Nations Observer Group in Central America 1/ and the United Nations Observer Mission in El Salvador, 2/ as well as the related report of the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions, 3/

the subsequent resolutions by which the Council extended the mandate of the Mission, the latest of which was its resolution 791 (1992) of 30 November 1992,

Recalling its resolution 46/240 (1992) of 22 May 1992, wherein it decided, in principle, that the special accounts for the United Nations Observer Group in Central America and the United Nations Observer Mission in El Salvador should be merged,

Noting the current status of the combined Special Account for the United Nations Observer Group in Central America and the United Nations Observer Mission in El Salvador,

Recognizing that the costs of the United Nations Observer Mission in El Salvador are expenses of the Organization to be borne by Member States in accordance with Article 17, paragraph 2, of the Charter of the United Nations,

Recognizing also that, in order to meet the expenditures caused by the United Nations Observer Mission in El Salvador, a different procedure is required from the one applied to meet expenditures of the regular budget of the United Nations,

Bearing in mind the special responsibilities of the States permanent members of the Security Council, as indicated in General Assembly resolution 1874 (S-IV) of 27 June 1963, in the financing of such operations,

Mindful of the fact that it is essential to provide the United Nations Observer Mission in El Salvador with the necessary financial resources to enable it to fulfil its responsibilities under the relevant resolutions of the Security Council,

1. Notes the observations and recommendations contained in the report of the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions; 3/

2. Endorses the observations and recommendations contained in the report of the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions regarding economy measures, and urges the Secretary-General to implement them immediately;

3. Takes note of the outstanding assessments and the net operating deficit of the Special Account for the United Nations Observer Group in Central America and the United Nations Observer Mission in El Salvador;

9. Decides also that the remaining unencumbered balance in the Special Account for the United Nations Observer Group in Central America be credited to Member States against their assessed contributions for the next mandate period of the United Nations Observer Mission in El Salvador beyond 31 May 1993, should the Security Council decide to renew the mandate of the Mission. In the event that the Security Council decides not to renew the mandate of the United Nations Observer Mission in El Salvador beyond 31 May 1993, the above credits should be made available to be set off against the assessed contributions of Member States for other United Nations peace-keeping operations, in accordance with the Financial Regulations and Rules of the United Nations;

4/ Resolution 46/221 A and decision 47/456.

14. Requests the Secretary-General to take all necessary action to ensure that all United Nations activities related to the United Nations Observer Mission in El Salvador are administered with a maximum of efficiency and economy and in accordance with the relevant mandate, and further requests the Secretary-General to report on the arrangements in this regard in his report on the financial performance of the United Nations Observer Mission in El Salvador;
